STORIES

Student (A) was having personal problems. Student b placed a photo of the student on the internet. After a week, during a history class the student (A) began to cry compulsively.

The teacher told her to go to the bathroom and three other students accompanied her.

The group of three students encouraged the student (A) to accuse student b of cyberbullying.

They began to judge student B by cyberbullying.

Solution

The class director helped, dialoguing/ talking with the students.

Student b put the picture without wanting to offend her.

The teacher dissipated the misunderstanding generated by different perspectives of the same situation and by a little manipulation of the group.
